Rich Becker
AdviCoach

To Whom It May Concern:

Last month, I attended Mr. Becker's presentation of the 5 Steps to Freedom in Business seminar at the Glen Ellyn library. Mr. Becker clearly presented the AdviCoach's 5 Steps to Freedom in Business, which began with Irrelevance and ended in Freedom. Mr. Becker began by asking the attendees which step they felt their business was currently in. This further enabled him to appropriately tailor his presentation to his audience. The information shared by Mr. Becker was incredibly helpful and very timely for the stage of business I am currently in.

As a new business owner, I found the information Mr. Becker presented to be not only enlightening, but pertinent to the future growth of my company.

Sincerely,
